

THE ADVENTURES OF PARKER THE PARROT

A Children's Story Book by Jenny Homfray

Children and adults alike will delight in reading these five traditional stories of a mischievous parrot, Parker, his owner Miss Brown, the local school mistress and the adventures they encounter. Written by Jenny Homfray and dedicated to the memory of her grandson Felix, these stories have beautiful colour illustrations by Joanna Dawson. Jenny will generously donate 50% of profits to the Society, to support children with neuroblastoma and fund research into better treatment.

The book would suit young children from four onwards, to whom the stories can be read, through to older children of eight or so who are able to read it themselves.

The book is a glossy paperback 8.5 inches by 8.5 inches and running to 32 pages. It is unlikely to be stocked by bookshops, but will be available to order through them and from the publisher, www.authorhouse.co.uk (ISBN 9781438912295). The book is print to order and produced in America, so in addition to the cover price there will be an international shipping charge as well as a possible lead time of three weeks.

So that we can maximise the profit on sales for the benefit of the Society the author has ordered a small stock of books that we can supply without delay, subject to availability. The cost of the book ordered this way is £7.99, plus UK postage and packing of £1.01 for first class delivery. For recorded delivery please add an addition 72p.

Your cheque should be made payable to The Neuroblastoma Society for £9 (£9.72 for recorded delivery) and returned with the order form below to The Membership Secretary, The Neuroblastoma Society, 54 Forest Road. Richmond, Surrey TW9 3BZ. Orders will be dealt with in order of receipt. Once the initial stock is exhausted there may be a delay before your order can be processed whilst further stock is awaited from America.
